TRANSPORTATION

Syracuse is located at the crossroads of two interstate highway systems, east/west I-90 the New York State Thruway, and north/south I-81.

Air: Syracuse Hancock International Airport is the primary gateway for air service across the Central New York region. Hancock Airport is served by seven major airlines that transport more than two million passengers to and from Central New York, each year. With 120+ daily flights, Hancock Airport serves 24 non-stop destinations to major national and international gateway hubs. Six major air cargo companies service the Syracuse terminal in addition to several regional carriers, forwarders and passenger airlines that offer air freight services.

Highway: More than 150 trucking companies, including the nation's top 12 carriers of general freight, service the Syracuse area.

Bus: CENTRO provides public transportation for Syracuse and suburbs at a fare of $2.00. Onondaga Coach, Greyhound, Syracuse & Oswego, and Adirondack Trailways also provide inter-city passenger service.

Rail: The Finger Lakes Railway main route runs from Syracuse to Canandaigua, a distance of 76 miles. At Syracuse, the FGLK interchanges with CSX Transportation and New York, Susquehanna and Western Railway, which provide direct rail freight service to a variety of Northeastern markets. Amtrak provides rail passenger transportation service from the William F. Walsh Regional Transportation Center.

Water: The Port of Oswego is located on the southeast shore of Lake Ontario, 34 miles northwest of Syracuse. The New York State Canal System encompasses 524 miles and runs east-west across New York State, connecting the Niagara River with the Hudson River. The Onondaga Lake Barge Canal Terminal is located just north of Syracuse.

HEALTH CARE

Syracuse is home to numerous hospitals and specialized medical facilities, a number of long-term skilled nursing facilities, outpatient centers serving all sectors of the county, renowned teaching facilities, including Upstate University Health System, two hospital-based nursing schools, and several residency programs.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Public, Private and Parochial Education: There are 18 school districts in Onondaga County (17 Suburban, 1 City) with an enrollment of approximately 68,197 students. The districts are comprised of 78 Elementary Schools, 27 Junior High, and 21 High Schools. In addition, there are 23 accredited private and parochial schools and 2 charter schools in the greater Syracuse area.

College and Universities: There are 85 colleges and universities within a 100 mile radius of Syracuse, with a combined total enrollment of over 250,000 students. More than 20% of these students attend school at one of the 13 schools in the Syracuse MSA. Regional colleges and universities include:
